OCALA OCCURRENCES

If you have any society items, phone five-one.

Mrs. L. A. Tucker of Martel was in the city yesterday shopping.

Mrs. J. C. Groff and Mrs. T. K.
Slaughter of Oxford were well-known visitors in the city yesterday.

Mr. C. M. Brittain is in Jacksonville attending the Baptist state convention.

Misses Estelle and Zelma Proctor of Summerfield were shoppers in town this morning.

Mrs. W. S. Priest of Burbank and Misses E. F. and F. B. Bull of Dun-nellen were visitors in the city today.

Miss L. M. Singleton of Inverness is the guest of Mrs. R. L. Weaver for a few days en route to Orlando.

Miss Josephine Williams leaves Sunday afternoon for an extended visit in New York city.

Mrs. S. M. Shirer of Sumter, S. C., is the guest of her cousins, Mrs. E.
W. Whitesides and Miss Josie Williams.

Mrs. W. L. Smith of High Point, N.
C. and Miss Gertrude Haffner of Montreal, Canada, were visitors in town yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Kilgore are expecting the former's mother to arrive this afternoon from Leesburg to make them a visit for some time.

Be sure to see Henry the Magician at the Woman's Club Monday, January 19th, at 8 o'clock. Fourth lyceum attraction. 15-3t

Mr. and Mrs. William Ditto, regular winter visitors to Ocala, have arrived in Jacksonville from the north, and their many friends in Ocala are looking forward to their arrival in this city.

Mirth provoking, mysterious, perplexing problems, astounding illusions, elaborate settings. Henry and company. Spectacular performance.
Woman's Club, Monday, January 19th, 8 o'clock p. m. 15-3t

The friends of Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Black will be interested to learn that Mr. Black has accepted the Methodist pulpit at Newport Richey, and will leave on the 24th of this month to fill same. This will be the young pastor's first church and congratulations and best wishes are extended to him.

Tickets for Henry in Magic, Mystery and Mirth at Gerig's drug store and Gerig's news stand. Admission, adults, 75 cents. Tickets for school pupils sold at high school, 50 cents. 3t

Rev. Walter Hendrix of Georgia, will preach at the Baptist church this evening at 7:30 o'clock. Rev. Hendrix is a fluent and able speaker and it is hoped that he will be received with a crowded house. While in the city he is the guest of his friend, Mr. Rayford Simmons.

Tuesday, Jan. 13th, was a lucky day for Mrs. Jessie Marshall, who was 81 years young that day, and she was constantly made happy throughout the day by her many friends. From early morning until late at night, she was receiving callers, from the wee tots up to her oldest friends. This Mrs. Marshall appreciated very much for it signifies how much she is beloved by every age.

Don't fail to see Henry the Magician, at the Woman's Club Monday night with his elaborate paraphernalia and side-splitting stunts. Tickets at Gerig's. 15-3t

Mr. Charles Goddard, after many years of absence, is in the city for a short visit and is kept busy greeting his many friends. Mrs. Goddard is expected to arrive next week. Mr. and Mrs. Goddard are former residents and their host of Ocala friends hope they will decide to remain permanently.

Yesterday afternoon at her home on Oklawaha avenue, Mrs. J. D. Robertson entertained the Thursday afternoon auction club. The tables for the players were arranged in the music room, which was made exceedingly attractive by several large vases of exquisite white and pink carnations.
Here the club members and two additional guests, Mrs. W. W. Harris and Mrs. Annie Van Deman, enjoyed for several hours many rounds of auction, after which the hostess served her guests to an appetizing course of chicken salad, nut bread, coffee and mints. Mrs. E. L. Carney and Mrs.
Rayford Simmons joined the players for refreshments. On counting the scores, Mrs. E. J. Crook was awarded the club prize, a handsome embroidered bridge cover, for making the highest number of points, and Mrs. Van Deman, who was the highest scorer of the visitors, was presented a box of dainty linen handkerchiefs. The afternoon spent with Mrs. Robertson was most enjoyable.

Just received, our spring garden seed—bean, cucumber, tomato and all others. Bitting & Co., Ocala, Fla. 7-12tdly

THE MIRACLE

Oh, the daily cost of living Rises higher, like a flame, But the little home Love builded Thrives and prospers just the same!
There is warmth and cheer a-plenty,
There is food upon the shelf,
And a corner by the hearthside For the God of Love himself.
There he curls, where none may spy him,
And I think he understands Just how far the two have traveled Who set out with empty hands.

Ah, at times the way was weary—'Twas a thorny road and rough, But what worlds two hearts can conquer.
Given love and faith enough!
In the crib in yonder corner Love's most precious guerdon lies; Heavy lids with slumber laden Hide the laughter in his eyes.
Can the gardens of the wealthy Show a fairer bloom than this?
Can the heart be starved for flowers That has rosebud lips to kiss?

Nay, we go not clad in velvet,
And the only gem we own Is the jewel of contentment—A right rare and precious stone!
Having books, who yearns for rubies?
Having music, who needs gold?
Youth lacks never food for laughter; Sorrow shared are soon consoled.
He who counts the cost too often Plays a cautious, lonely part;
May the little home Love builded Spur the hesitating heart!

TILLMAN-GATES

At noon today at the Methodist parsonage a quiet but impressive wedding was solemnized when Miss Mary Frances Gates became the bride of Mr. Wiley J. Tillman. Rev. C. W.
White of the Methodist church officiated, the ring ceremony being used.

Mrs. Tillman, a petite blonde, was lovely in a handsome light blue georgette and satin dress, elaborately beaded, with which she wore a stunning velvet hat of the same color, and accessories to match. The groom wore conventional black.

The announcement of this marriage will be received with a great deal of interest throughout the county, as the bride is a member of one of our old and prominent families, the only daughter of Mrs. Lizzie S. Gates, and Ocala has always been her home. She is a graduate of the Ocala high school and is one of the city's most talented musicians, a great worker in the Baptist church and by her sweet, cordial and unassuming manners has won the love and admiration of all her acquaintances.

Mr. Tillman has resided in Ocala for about two years and during that time has made many friends who have the highest respect for him. He came to Ocala from Orange Heights, Alachua county, and has been connected with the express company since his arrival. He holds the position of cashier in the Ocala office and by his efficiency in handling the business of the office has made an enviable reputation.

Mr. and Mrs. Tillman left immediately in their car for a ten days' visit down the east coast. The best of wishes from their friends are extended to this couple, who will on their return make their home with the bride's mother and brother, Mr.
Frank Gates.

Helps Sick Women
Cardui, the woman's tonic, helped Mrs. William Eversole, of Hazel Patch, Ky. Read what she writes: "I had a general breaking-down of my health. I was in bed for weeks, unable to get up. I had such a weakness and dizziness,
... and the pains were very severe. A friend told me I had tried everything else, why not Cardui? ... I did, and soon saw it was helping me ... After 12 bottles, I am strong and well."
CARDUI
The Woman's Tonic
Do you feel weak, dizzy, worn-out? Is your lack of good health caused from any of the complaints so common to women? Then why not give Cardui a trial? It should surely do for you what it has done for so many thousands of other women who suffered—it should help you back to health.
Ask some lady friend who has taken Cardui.
She will tell you how it helped her. Try Cardui.
